Who We Are

CADC's mission is to improve the quality of life and build strong communities in Arkansas.

In 1965, CADC was organized as a community action agency - a local force in the War on Poverty. Our efforts center on giving voice to persons who want to make a better world for themselves.

CADC strives to ensure this battle is won through a focus on six goals, which were adopted from ROMA's (Results oriented Management and Accountability) national performance-based system.

Improving the Quality of Life

CADC believes that every family, every child, and every community has a right to the basic opportunities in Arkansas.

For more than 40 years, CADC has succeeded in providing a better quality of life for low-income individuals and families in Arkansas.

How do We Do It?

CADC promotes self-help opportunities through a broad network of services that include early childhood education, elder services, nutrition, energy assistance, housing, transportation, Money Management, Family Development, and more.

There is a path that leads to success. At CADC, we help individuals and communities complete that journey.

ROMA Goals

- ◆ Low-income people become more self-sufficient.
- ◆ The conditions in which low-income people live are improved.
- ◆ Low-income people own a stake in their community.
- ◆ Partnerships among supporters and providers of service to low-income people are achieved.
- ◆ Agencies increase their capacity to achieve results.
- ◆ Low-income people, especially vulnerable populations, achieve their potential by strengthening family and other supportive systems.
